GOVERNOR PRAISES ORDER

Says No Other Fraternity Has Done So Much to Advance the Interests of the State.

An event that will long be remem ered and one that makes an epoch in the history of the Salt Lake lodge of Elks, was the visit here of grand lodge Elks, was the visit here of grand lodge officers, Grand Exalted Ruler R. L. Holland, of Colorado Springs, and Grand Secretary Fred C. Robinson. It was one of the greatest gatherings of Elks ever witnessed in this city, not from point of numbers, but from the fact that Elks came here from various parts of the United States and one was here from Manila to assist the Salt Lake Elks and those belonging to Ogden, Provo, Park City and Eureka lodges, to do honor to the distinguished visitors.

lodges, to do honor to the distinguished visitors.

Judge Holland and Secretary Robinson were met far down the line of the Salt Lake Route by a special committee. Douglas White and Joe Manderfield of the Salt Lake Route saw to it that the visitors were supplied with every comfort possible. Thomas Romer, P. P. Christensen, Esteemed Leading Knight and Acting Exalted Ruler J. M. Collins and others met the train down the line and accompanied the visitors to the city. They were met at the depot by Elks from the five lodges of the state. They were there with automobiles and were taken for a 40-minute ride about the city. Judge Holland expressed delight at the beauty and growth of Salt Lake City.

Following the ride about the city a banquet was served at the clubhouse by the club's chef, John Soloman, and under the direction of Salt Lake Elks. At the banquet Thomas Homer acted as toastmaster and several brief speeches were made.

SPECIAL SESSION HELD.

Among the guests there were Elks from New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles, New Orleans, Portland and one from far away Manila. The latter was Burlingame Johnson, a member of the diplomatic corps and an enthusinstic Elk.

member of the diplamatic corps and the enthusiastic Elk.

At the conclusion of the banquet a special meeting of the lodge was held in the lodge room, Esteemed Leading Knight J. M. Collins presiding. At this meeting Exalted Ruler Holland made a feeling speech and congratulated the order upon its splendid showing and the great amount of good it has accomplished. Following the special meeting a public reception was held and there were about 100 ladies present. They presented to Judge Holland a beautiful boquet, the presentation speech being made by Mayor John S. Bransford. The mayor also paid a tribute to the work of the order and gave praise to the organization for the good it has done in assisting to build up the city and state.

In responding to the speech Judge Holland said:

In responding to the speech Juage Holland said:
"Among the Elks the ladies are always called the 'dears' of the order, and to you, my 'dears,' I wish to express my sincere appreciation both for this beautiful bouquet and for the sentiment that inspired the gift. To the ladies of the Elks the members of the lodge owe much. It is to them that much, aye, most, of the credit, is due for the success of the work of this order in all lines. To the ladies we never can repay our constant debt of never can repay our constant debt of Among the guests was Governor John C. Cutler, who was introduced by Thomas Homer as "Our governor—the Thomas Homer as "Our governor—the only governor."

The chief executive was most happy in his speech of welcome to the distinguished guests.

tinguished guests.

BEST PLACE ON EARTH.

"Utah is the best place on earth for the best people on earth to live," said he in his opening remarks.

"In my opinion," he continued, "the Elks' lodge, and I say this without disparagement to any other organization, has done more than any other fraternal organization in Utah to make this state a great state, and make it the best place to live, to bring about harmony among all its people, and to improve the condition not only of its members but of every one else in the state. The members of this lodge have proved their title to being called 'the best people on earth."

Gov. Cutler's speech was greeted with great applause and he was warmly thanked for his kind words.

In speaking of the grand lodge meeting which takes place in Los Angeles in July, Grand Exalted Ruler Holland said in part:

"The session of the grand lodge in Los Angeles will be the biggest event in the history of the order. From every part of the United States plans are being laid to run special trains carrying thousands upon thousands of Elks to the coast for the great meeting. The people of Los Angeles began to make arrangements to care for the Elks two years ago, and as soon as the arnouncement was made that the grand lodge would go to Los Angeles they began to put their plans in operation.

With the grand secretary and other officers of the grand lodge I have just been to Los Angeles, and have gone over carefully the plans made by the California Elks and their friends for the entertainment of the lodge, and I was surprised and delighted with the completeness of the arrangements and the practical manner of carrying them completeness of the arrangements and the practical manner of carrying them out. Every Elk will miss the best time of his life if he fails to go to Los An-

PREPARE FOR VISITORS.

The local Elks have already begun preparations under the direction of Exalted Ruler A. J. Davis, who unfortunately was unable to attend the reception as he is out of town, for the entertainment of the thousands who will visit Salt Lake next summer on their way to the grand lodge meeting. "Salt Lake, the gateway to sunny southern California" is the keynote to the situation, and every effort will be made to provide public entertainment for the thousands who will pass through the city. Practically every train will come through Salt Lake, and the grand exalted ruler's special will come this way and go over the Salt Lake Route. His train will be one of the finest on wheels and will lack nothing that goes for comfort. Secy. Raybould went to Los Angeles a few days ago to make arrangements for the annual excursion and for the entertainment of Elks who and for the entertainment of Elks who will attend the annual gathering.
